

MWWA AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Minnesota Water Well Association Award

Seeking to recognize and honor those who have given of themselves in their business and community to further the groundwater industry in the State of Minnesota!

“Political Appreciation Award”*

Criteria: Person or Politician who has supported legislative actions to further the interests of the groundwater industry in Minnesota. The nominee can be a member or non-member of the MWWA.

“Member of the Year Award”*

Criteria: Nominee must be an active member of the MWWA. If a Contractor member, be licensed with the MDH and in good standing with the MDH for the past 5 years. Nominee may also be a M&S member. Both types of member should be involved in proactively promoting our industry and their role within their community through service and education, and actively participating within the MWWA.

“Honorary Life Member”

Criteria: Nominee must be an active individual Member or Associate Member (of the M&S) who has contributed a special service in the furtherance of this industry or this Association and has retired from active participation in the industry.

NOTE → * indicates that current members of the Board and or Convention Committee are excluded from nomination and or receiving these awards.

Deadline for Nominations is December 15

Thank you for your nomination.
